Subject: Abstracts from S.C.

These are very hard to find abstracts from S.C. for the McElduffs. These are helpful for any researcher that wants to trace those elusive clan families and where they came from before ancestors moved into Alabama and MS.

The following are the abstracts and where they can be located in Horry County. again we cannot copy them by machine but they sure help

Subject: Abstracts from S.C.

These are very hard to find abstracts from S.C. for the McElduffs. These are helpful for any researcher that wants to trace those elusive clan families and where they came from before ancestors moved into Alabama and MS.

The following are the abstracts and where they can be located in Horry County. again we cannot copy them by machine but they sure help

Notes for CLARENCE REA STOKES:
Account of the death of Clarence Stokes from The Neshoba Democrat as given by a friend:
"He was braking on the log train which was pulled by Fordson Tractors, each tractor carrying two cars of logs. He was sitting on the end of front car between it and the tractor, the coupling pin jumped out and he had his feet resting on the coupling pole and is dropped down causing him to lose his balance and falling in front of the car of logs. The car ran over him as it was down grade and killed him instantly, broke his neck, and cut off his left leg just below the calf all but small bit of skin. He never spoke a word only as he fell some of the boys said he hollered out Oh, Lord! So he was brought in to the mill at once and all the works were closed for the day. I personally wired you for the Company, and I personally had his body embalmed and prepared for shipment, I personally selected his case and clothes buying the best that was obtainable here at the expense of the Bell M. F. G."
